GPRA Update - March 26, 2017

Dear Great Pyrenees Friends,

Who could ever imagine a male PYR shot with a shotgun in North Georgia and a 6 month old female PYR puppy shot in the leg would take a dramatic circuitous route and become inseparable brother and sister. We have shared the rescue of both Liam and Susan with Liam recovering remarkably well at the Walters farm and Susan, after hind leg amputation, serendipitously landing at the Walters for recovery as well. Little did we know that they were meant to be together and their tragedies have now resulted in what will now be a lifetime of happiness. Truly an epic love story. A wonderful family in Michigan, with the perfect set up, had planned to adopt Liam. Well now, they are not only adopting Liam, but Susan as well.

MEET LIAM AND SUSAN AT GENTLE GIANTS IN THE PARK on April 23, 2017 as we send them off to Michigan with their new family!!!

Please be responsible for returning your completed raffle ticket book to Great Pyrenees Rescue of Atlanta at the address below. If you need more tickets or haven't received any please request at GentleGiants2017@greatpyratlanta.com

We have some terrific silent auction items, great food, cool new t shirt, top vets and a record breaking number of PYRS planned for Gentle Giants in the Park, so please RSVP now so we can have an accurate count for food and gifts. This is GPRA's big thank you to our adopters and supporters. If you have any silent auction items to donate please contact us at SilentAuction2017@greatpyratlanta.com

Thank you,

John Heldrich
